

Mr. Kudera's Weekly Outline: February 5

Music

Grade One

The students will continue to explore the orchestral family of instruments. This week, we will explore the percussion family.

Grade Two

The students will continue to practice rhythms based on eighth note pairs.

Grade Three

Theory

- The students will learn about and sing the folk song Land of the Silver Birch.

Practicum

- Students will continue to work on material from Recorder Karate. Please remember to visit the music homework section to view the material students should be practicing.

Grade Four

Theory

- The students will continue to learn about Canadian Folk songs.

Practicum

- Students will continue to work on material from Recorder Karate. Please remember to visit the music homework section to view the material students should be practicing.

Grade Five

Theory

- The students will continue to learn about the music of First Nations including ceremonial drumming.

Practicum

- Students will continue to work on material from Recorder Karate. Please remember to visit the music homework section to view the material students should be practicing.

Grade Six

Theory

- Students will learn about the Classical Era of music.

Practicum – students are to bring their instruments on Tuesday only

- Strumming eighth note patterns on the ukulele. There will be a rhythm/strumming playing test on February 6.

Grade Seven – students are to bring their instruments on Tuesday only

Theory

- Students will continue to study the use of the piano in various genres of music and its use as a solo or accompaniment instrument.

Practicum

- Strumming eighth note patterns on the ukulele. There will be a rhythm/strumming playing test on February 6.

Grade Eight

Theory

- Music History: This week, the students will learn about music in the Middle Ages and Pope Gregory the Great and the Gregorian Chant.

Practicum

- The students will continue to practice sixteenth note rhythm patterns with two-part layering.

Computers

Grade Three

The students will continue to work with the fundamentals of creating a Microsoft Power Point presentation.

Grade Five

The students will practice using the @sum function. They will also learn basic cell and table formatting. There will be an Excel unit test on February 26. Students are encouraged to review the worksheets found on Mr. Kudera's website.

Grade Six

The students will continue to practice writing formulas in Excel. There will be an Excel unit test on February 26. Students are encouraged to review the worksheets found on Mr. Kudera's website.

Grade Seven

The students will continue to practice creating charts and tables. There will be an Excel unit test on February 26. Students are encouraged to review the worksheets found on Mr. Kudera's website.

Grade Eight

The students will learn how to reference cells/data using multiple tabs in Excel. There will be an Excel unit test on February 16. Students are encouraged to review the worksheets found on Mr. Kudera's website.

Media Arts

Grade Three

The students will continue to learn about authors and illustrators. We will continue reading Beware, Pirates! by Canadian author Frieda Wishinsky.

Grade Five

The students will learn begin exploring graphic novels.

Grade Six

The students will continue writing and posting book reviews.
