The Lion and the Mouse

A lion was asleep. A mouse ran onto the lion. The lion woke up. The lion put his paw on the mouse. "I will eat you," said the lion.

"No!" said the mouse. "If you let me go, one day I will help you." The lion said, "How can a little mouse help a big lion?" "Ha! Ha! Ha!" laughed the lion, and he let the mouse go.

One day the lion was trapped in a net. The lion roared. The mouse heard the lion, and went to help him. The mouse made a big hole in the net with his little teeth. The lion was free.

"You see," said the mouse, "A little friend can help a big friend."
