	There's a campfire, marshmallows, and a long stick. What are you doing?		You see a snake while playing outside. What do you do?		You want to roast marshmallows over the campfire. What do you ask your parents?		You like to tell scary campfire stories, but your sister covers her ears so she can't hear. How does SHE feel?		What do I mean? Her smile was a ray of sunshine on the rainy day.
	There is a canoe, oars, life jackets, and a lake. What are you doing?		You want to play outside, but you are allergic to mosquitoes. What do you do?		You want to invite your friend, Jon, to go to the lake with your family. What do you ask him?		You offer your friend a dark roasted marshmallow but he shakes his head and says, "Eww!". How does HE feel?		What do I mean? Don't beat around the bush ; tell me what's wrong!
	There is a fishing pole, hook, bait, and a river. What are you doing?		You want to go in the lake, but you can't swim. What do you do?		You want to go outside at night to catch fireflies. What do you ask your grandpa?		You want to go hiking but your brother has skates in his hand. What does HE want to do?		What do I mean? All's well in our neck of the woods ! How are you?
	You have boots, a walking stick, a trail map, and a compass. What are you doing?		It's a bright sunny day, but your skin burns easily. What do you do?		You can't find the bug repellent spray. What do you ask your mom?		Your dad accidentally stepped in an ant hill and got lots of ant bites. How does HE feel?		What do I mean? Mike was too under the weather to go camping.
