Our Class Rules

Gold Rule - Treat others the way you want to be treated!

- Be respectful to everyone at all times.
- If you follow this rule, everyone will have a better year!

Red Rule - Raise your hand for permission to walk, talk, or touch!

- You should not get out of your seat, return to your cubby, bother someone's things, or talk without permission from the teacher
- No blurting out during class!

Blue Rule- Appropriate questions and comments should be made at appropriate times! Inappropriate comments and questions are not allowed!

- Instructional time is very important! For example, no one should ask what time lunch or PE is or begin telling us what happened at on the bus during class time.

Five Rules of Good Listening

1. Eyes on Speaker
2. Lips are closed and quiet
(no humming or other noises)
3. Ears are open and listening to the speaker
4. Hands are still in your lap
5. Feet are still and not moving

ALWAYS SIT UP
