

Cut out the pieces and then fold them along the dotted lines on each side forming a staircase. Glue the base pairs together in such a way as to create a double strand Helix of DNA. See the example in the classroom.

